"To introduce children to literature is to install them in a very rich and glorious kingdom, to bring a continual holiday to their doors, to lay before them a feast exquisitely served."

- Charlotte Mason

"An observant
child should be put in the way of things worth observing."

- Charlotte Mason

"Let children feed on the good, the excellent,
the great! Don't get in their way with little lectures, facts, and guided tours!"

- Charlotte Mason

"Children should have the joy of living in far lands, in other persons, in other times - a delightful double existence; and this joy they will find, for the most part, in their story books.

- Charlotte Mason
